

RER909X | 3-layer recycled printable casual hooded softshell

100% recycled polyester. Unisex 3-layer softshell with integrated hood, designed for protection, comfort and performance in all weather conditions. The fabric is waterproof up to 8000 mm, breathable 1000 g and windproof, with a TPU membrane that ensures an excellent barrier against atmospheric agents. The front zip closure features an internal windbreak flap and chin guard, while the chest and side zip pockets offer convenience and safety. The slightly elongated back improves coverage, and stretch cuffs with thumb holes ensure a functional and stable fit. Made from recycled materials from post-consumer PET and industrial waste, it is a sustainable choice and also ideal for customization.
