

BCJG004 | Reset Lined Windbreaker

100% recycled polyester. Lightweight, water-resistant and highly breathable windbreaker designed to set a new standard in weather protection with certified eco-conscious performance. The outer shell is made from 100% recycled material and treated with a fluorine-free durable DWR water-repellent finish, ensuring excellent protection against the elements while respecting the environment. The recycled polyester mesh lining enhances breathability and moisture control, providing optimal comfort during active use. The adjustable drawstring hood completes the protection, while the gender-neutral design and label-free collar make it ideal for customization and outdoor performance.
